First Federal Savings to Open Offices Monday

Palm Springs' new financial institution, First Federal Savings and Loan Association, will open next Monday morning. Offices of the new federal savings and home financing institution are located at 400 South Palm Canyon Drive.

Members of the staff are looking forward to showing residents of Palm Springs and the surrounding area the beautiful offices of the association, Jaynes said.

The federally-chartered savings and home financing institution has been in the process of organization for more than a year. Work on the new quarters has been under way since last July when the property was leased.

"The organizers of First Federal Savings are greatly pleased that their hopes of providing this new savings and home financing facility for this area have now been realized," Jaynes said. "We believe the whole growing area will benefit in many ways through the establishment of this association."

U.S. MUST KEEP PACE WITH RUSSIA IN ARMS RACE, ADMIRAL DAVIS WARNS

Referring to the way in which the first United States and then Russia forges ahead in defensive preparations as a leap frog process, Vice Admiral W. V. Davis said this country can't afford to remain static, when he addressed the Southwest Commandery of the Naval Order of the United States at its winter dinner at the Racquet Club last night, on the anniversary of Pearl Harbor.

He warned that there will be no all-out war as long as an attack means mutual suicide, and that an over ready tendency to classify all war into one phase is costing us money, readiness and capability.

POINTING OUT that the Russians are building more submarines in a year than the United States expects to have in many years, the Deputy Chief of Naval Operation (Air) stressed the need of protection of our fleet at sea, and the importance of anti-submarine protection. Because of the

Union Files Challenge to 'Work' Law

Hearing Set By Judge McCabe for Next Friday

By FRED C. WEIGEL

With action coming sooner than expected, the city's controversial Right-to-Work ordinance faces a constitutionality test next Friday in Judge Hilton McCabe's Superior Court at Indio.

Lionel Richman, union attorney, filed suit for a preliminary injunction yesterday, and Judge McCabe issued an order for the City of Palm Springs to show cause why the injunction should not be issued.

Richman said today that the unions were "filing it now because the real parties who are going to be injured are the employers who have union contracts and who want to live up to them. They are caught in the middle because of the ordinance. We feel we owe them whatever protection we can give them by getting a declaration of their rights, as well as the rights of the unions."

The city was served at 9 p.m. last night through Mayor Florian Boyd.

THE ACTION for declaratory relief was filed for Louis Rees on behalf of local 535: Robert Wilsey, secretary of the Building and Construction Trade Council of San Bernardino and Riverside Counties, and Stewart B. Mason, president of General Truck Drivers Union Local 467.

It alleges that a controversy exists between the City of Palm Springs and the Unions, and asks the Right-to-Work law be declared unconstitutional.

This is the second action taken by the Unions during the past two days, with the filing by Richman

Frank Bogert is now acting as publisher. Ray Ryan is majority stockholder of The Village Publishing Company, Inc., which owns and publishes the magazine.

For the past eighteen months, since the purchase of The Villager from former publisher George O. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Whitesides had served as co-editors and publishers during a period of many improvements and general expansion of the widely known Palm Springs publication.

Prior to that, Whitesides was publisher of the Palm Springs News and for a number of years owner and publisher of the Morning Times and Evening Advance-Register in Tulare, Calif., and the Advance in Lemoore. He is a past president of the California Newspaper Publishers Association, an organization of some 600 newspapers in the state.

Villagers Asked To Host Marines At Christmas

Local organizations and residents will be asked to make it a Merry Christmas for some 400 Marines from Twenty-ninth Palms, when on Christmas day the boys in service will be brought to Palm Springs by bus.

The plan, as told by one of the organizers, is to bring the youths into town and use as the unloading depot the El Mirador hotel. Through advance subscription, residents who so desire will take whatever number of the boys they can into their homes to enjoy Christmas day.

Restaurants and hotels will be contacted by the committee and asked if they will sponsor four or six of the Marines at dinner.

Both El Mirador and the Palm Springs Ranch Club will have Christmas trees, which will have under them small, inexpensive gifts for the boys, all donated. It was asked that those who do give gifts, include a personal note to the recipient.

For information or donations Miss Beverly Smedley may be contacted at 9163.

Government Backs Down In Attitude

Workers Had Warned of New Strikes, Uprising

BUDAPEST. — The release of 96 labor leaders arrested by the Communist government today relieved the threat of a new uprising in Budapest.

The 96 leaders of workers councils were freed last night and the word spread quickly among angry workers who had warned the Janos Kadar regime that new tragedy faced the country unless the arrests were halted and the leaders freed.

An 8 p.m. Friday deadline set by the workers for Kadar's reply to their demands had passed with no word from the puppet regime.

MEANWHILE, TRUCK convoys of Soviet troop reinforcements rumbling through Budapest's streets added to the tension and the fear of a new armed uprising.

There were no reports of new arrests today.

But Hungarian police and militiamen were on round-the-clock alert.

The Central Workers Council of Budapest had angrily protested the arrests to Kadar and demanded he broadcast his reply over the radio by 8 o'clock Friday night. The hour passed with no word from Kadar.

'THE COUNCIL had warned that if the arrests did not stop, "the workers will turn against the government for good and the end will be a general strike, bloodshed and a new national tragedy."

Hammar skjold Asks Hungary To Keep Word

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold served notice on Hungary today that he was holding it to its foreign minister's invitation for him to visit the revolt-torn country next week.

Imre Horvath, foreign minister of the Budapest regime, agreed with Hammarskjold here last Wednesday on Dec. 16 as the start of a two-day Hungarian inspection trip by the United Nations chief. Later, Budapest radio announced the Dec. 16 date was "unacceptable" and that Hammarskjold's trip would not be made.

In a report prepared for the General Assembly, Hammarskjold announced today that he had received only frustration in his efforts to get into Hungary or send observers there or to adjacent countries.

He indicated that if he could not visit Hungary on the date he suggested there would be no use in making the trip. He did not amplify a single warning sentence.

"If the visit cannot be made at the time proposed," he said, "it may be questioned whether it would be to the purpose."

Desert Museum Forced to Turn Away Exhibits Due to Lack of Space

Lack of adequate space at the Desert Museum is cheating Palm Springs out of many valuable collections of natural history, Indian artifacts and other displays having vast educational and research value, August G. Kettmann, president of the Museum's board of directors, declared today.

"The museum not only is unable to display the many available exhibits — we don't have the space to safely store them when they are offered to us," Kettmann said.

"ALL OF US who are working closely with the Desert Museum regret it extremely when we must turn down a generous offer of a very desirable collection of materials which we know would add interest to the Museum and prove a delight to the thousands of visitors annually. But we must face facts that we've outgrown the small army barracks located at 135 East Tahquitz Drive; we cannot accept proffered materials if we cannot display them," he said.

One of the collections which the Desert Museum sorely desired but which may be lost to the desert is the Indian basket group owned by Mrs. Irving Snyder of Palm Springs and Coronado. She has sought for years to have the Desert Museum accept the baskets but lack of space to display or store them has forced the management to reluctantly reject the offer. The baskets have been given to the San Diego museum and whether they ever could be obtained for showing here is doubtful.

Several outstanding collections of Indian artifacts are available in Palm Springs and the Coachella Valley when the Museum is able to accept them, he said.

In addition to the permanent gifts to the Museum from individuals, the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, the American Museum of Natural History and many others continually have available materials which they will give outright to Museums. These most often are duplicated collections and yet have great value to local institutions.

"ALL THROUGH the Southwest are splendid collections of materials on which persons have spent their whole lifetime and which would be available to us if we only had some means to preserve and display them," Kettmann explained.

THEN, TOO, members of the American Association of Museums have a plan for rotating displays which, if Palm Springs were in a position to accept them, would provide a continuing new source of interest for the throngs who visit the local Museum.

Rotarians Hear of Needs, Problems of Colleges Today

Problems of colleges in meeting increased enrollment, and the importance of keeping the present dual system of state and private colleges, was explained to Palm Springs Rotarians this week by Dr. George H. Armacost, president of Redlands University. Thirty-five visiting Rotarians joined the local members in their weekly meeting at the Tennis Club.

Anticipated increase in enrollment in colleges of California will require double the number of existing classrooms by 1965, Dr. Armacost said. The enrollment will run about 325,000. The need for more teachers will be increased accordingly, he said.

Dr. Armacost said it was very important that the private colleges be kept strong because they have certain advantages over the larger state institutions, and because the whole college system benefits by competition between the two types of schools.

The Rotarians responded with a rousing applause when President Jim Cavett announced that Mrs. Pearl McManus had donated $1,000 toward building a new Boy Scout clubhouse. Palm Springs Builders Supply will donate materials for the foundation and other parts of the building, Cavett said.

Mobile Homes

By VIRGINIA DAVIS

Mobile Home Parks in the Palm Springs desert area are fairly scintillating with Christmas decorations. Christmas trees can be seen on the patios and in the windows more often each night now and Parks are becoming a veritable fairyland—which reminds us—only 17 days until Christmas.

De Lux Park

A Color Camera Club is in the process of being organized, and those in other Parks who are interested, are urged to register at their Park office. The Club will hold its first meeting around Dec. 1 at the elementary school on D Street in Cathedral City, with Prof. Vargas as instructor.

The regular monthly meeting of Unit 7 of the California Trailer Park Association will be held Thursday, Dec. 13, at 8 p.m. at Skyridge, when matters of mutual interest to all Parks will be discussed, including area-wide publicity. A final report on the Trailer Rally also will be given at that time.

A CLASS IN GIFT making and gift wrapping is now being held weekly at De Luxe under the direction of Zona Cain. This class will continue until Christmas.

Dr. Dan Perry, with his selected committees will act as chairman of the Christmas Dinner and festivities, and the De Luxe Park orchestra will furnish the music. Incidentally, the music of the Park orchestra has been drawing record crowds at the Saturday night dances.

Among the recent arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brishin and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McKnight. Both the Brishins and McKnights contribute much to the Park's entertainment. Mrs. Brishin and Mrs. McKnight lead the Community Sing Sunday nights. Mr. McKnight is an accomplished pianist and is generous with his talent and Mr. Brishin a good square dance caller and is ever ready to fill in as guest caller. Both are old-time residents of De Luxe.

Rancho Trailer

The big day arrived! Opening game for Rancho in the Shuffleboard Tournament. Deluxe at Rancho with Rancho taking two straight after some fine shooting by both sides. Rancho players: Rains, Merritt, Mathis, and Leggett with Tom Gow as coach.

Dolores Foosee of The Desert Sun will receive delivery of her new "Golden" 30 foot Airfloat Wednesday and will be "at home" on B-56.

Mrs. Effie Shaddeck, B-44, finally arrived home after a summer visiting son and family.

LAURA SAUNDERS, hostess, is "speeding" with her new electric buggy throughout the park preparing for the fashion show Dec. 2.

City Sales Tax Shows Increase During November

City sales and use tax again showed another substantial increase in November, 1956, over the corresponding month last year, Shelby V. Langford, director of finance for the city, reported today.

In November of this year, the city collected $18,873 in sales taxes as compared with $18,123 in November, 1955.

Total sales tax collections for the fiscal year to date are $77,099 for the five months. In 1955, the collections from July 1 to Nov. 30, were $65,509.

Total amount collected by the city in sales tax since the levy became effective in May, 1947, was $1,461,129 as of Nov. 30, this year. Langford called attention to the fact that the receipts reported are on a cash basis and reflect business done in the preceding month or quarter.

Miss Hilda Roest Named President Of UN Chapter

Hilda Roest this week was elected president of the local chapter for United Nations activities in the Village for the coming year, and announced at the same time an exerted drive for members.

The membership drive was kicked off when C. M. Nelson, president of the State Council, spoke Thursday afternoon at a Lions Club luncheon at the Chi Chi, and again later in the evening at the Democratic Club meeting in the American Legion Hall.

At both meetings Nelson outlined the new importance of United Nations activities at home and the wide field for local activities.

In attendance at the Chapter meeting were people already active in promotion of UN activities, including Jerome Bunker, Mrs. E. M. Deering, Mrs. W. S. Moon, and Mrs. Loyal Nichols.

Parking Meters Take is $4,895 For November

With 553 parking meters in operation in the city, collections for November totalled $4,895 City Finance Director Shelby V. Langford reported today. It was a sharp gain over the previous month.

In November, 1955, the total was $2,580. Part of the large increase of the month this year over last year was due, Langford indicated, to the new dime-an-hour charge and to the addition of many meters.

Total take from parking meters for the fiscal year starting July 1 was $9,045 as of Nov. 30. For the first five months of 1955 the total as of Nov. 30, was $2,580.

Parking meters went into operation in Palm Springs in June, 1949, and since that time, the city has collected $157,373.

The 1956 turkey crop is estimated to be 16 per cent larger than last year.

Number Please?

SHERMAN, Tex. (AP) — Jerry Bell, a junior at Austin College here, has a system which he says enables him to remember telephone numbers by the hundreds. The 20-year-old student associates each number with a color — white for one, blue for two, etc. He says he knows every phone number in his home town, Gainesville, Tex., along with the numbers of every student at the college.

Gannon, Meiselman Expect Record Growth In Palm Springs Desert Area During 1957

The move desertward has reached such proportions in Palm Springs, declare Realtor George Gannon and Builder Jack Meiselman, that 1957 should see Palm Springs shed its village status and emerge as a full-fledged suburban city of Los Angeles.

The pair, who preside over the Gannon Realty Co. and Meiselman Enterprises, Inc., have been deluged by demands for homes from fugitives from the crowding, confusion and tensions of metropolitan city life.

So great has been this demand that as the New Year approaches, Gannon and Meiselman are truly able to say: "off with the old and on with the new."

THE LAST TWO homes in their Karlisa Cove development have been sold to former residents of New Jersey. Close-out of sales in this area marks the end of the large number of homes they had available in the $14,250 bracket. Rising land values, sparked by the unprecedented acceleration in home ownership demands, is responsible for this condition.

Gannon and Meiselman are auspiciously marking the start of the New Year by ringing up the curtain on their Ramon Rise Estates development.

LOCATED NEAR El Cielo and Ramon Road, this development will offer homes from $16,750. Commanding an inspiring view of the surrounding mountains, these three bedroom and two bath homes will be only five minutes from Palm Canyon Drive and will be immediately adjacent to schools and recreational areas.

Among the noteworthy features of the homes is celestial lighting, which provides the home buyer more than ample wall space for furniture arrangement. The living rooms will have an open beam ceiling and forced air heat along with desert cooling will be ducted to every room.

Ramon Rise Estates, a two hour drive from downtown Los Angeles over nearly 100 miles of sparsely traveled freeway, could well become a "home away from home" for city dwellers seeking release from the world of man-made troubles amidst the beauty and tranquility of the desert.

Gannon Realty Company, exclusive sales agency for this new development, has augmented its staff to better serve the needs of the home buyer. He suggested that an immediate choice of lot, view and color scheme will make an early occupancy possible.

Linda Falcao, the 20 year old University of Miami senior who solved a mathematical problem that has stumped professors for 17 years, will probably be urged to attend graduate school and devote herself to a mathematical career when she finishes her current studies in June.

Her problem in facing the career versus marriage decision therefore will be more difficult than that of the average girl. She will be warned that she must not waste her mathematical talents.

Of course they would not be entirely wasted in a housewife's career. Any husband can tell you how much a wife needs mathematical ability, in everything from figuring how long to cook the stew to writing checks.

There are problems in household mathematics—such as how to make ends meet—that have been baffling people for a lot longer than 17 years.

A committee of the National Association of Life Underwriters has warned against further liberalization of social benefits.

Urging a program of "reasonable containment" of social security, the committee said benefits "have a very substantial price tag and cannot be indiscriminately liberalized year after year without danger to the social security program itself, the nation's economy and our way of life."

His Own Boss

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Notice was duly served that Dwight Eisenhower would be tougher to handle as a White House second-term, but did you see whose toes got trampled first? When Eisenhower II stomped down, it was on the shiny shoes of British diplomacy and on our own international set.

The President's fury against Great Britain for her assault on Egypt took many of his admirers by surprise. After all, you have to go back to Theodore Roosevelt and Grover Cleveland to find President's who didn't bow down to the English on matters like this.

MR. EISENHOWER'S continuing coldness (just beginning to thaw) toward the Franco-British canal-grabbers has rendered the internationalists almost purple with rage. After all, they put Ike in there in '52 to keep fellows like the late Robert Taft and Douglas MacArthur from taking over the conduct of foreign affairs.

And now here is Eisenhower II hardly elected and not even inaugurated, acting as if—well, as if we don't have to do what the British want us to do any more.

The President's declaration of independence (for that's what it was) caused what you might expect in Britain and Europe — a surge of hate-America propaganda and passion. Such is gratitude, and there's no sign that the long-suffering American public was much surprised or offended. But it must have lifted a lot of eyebrows around the nation's breakfast tables to read so many news stories and columns which wore the flush of the anti-American fever abroad.

IKE HAD "SPLIT" us from our allies! Ike was "deserting" Britain and "destroying" NATO! By holding up oil shipments, he was preferring "sanctions" on West Europe. All was lost unless Ike's advisors took charge and "glued together" the Atlantic Alliance.

This alliance we are invited to believe, was a mighty fortress before Ike blew it down; and, of course, it isn't that the allies need us; we need them!

If much of the anti-Ike writing seems confused, I suppose there's a Freudian explanation in case you care for such answers. There has always been an Oedipus complex among American intellectuals for the Mother Country.

A college professor friend of mine, whom I encountered shortly after the polls closed last November 6th, told me he'd changed his vote on account of the Egyptian crisis. He had just balloted for Stevenson: Why? "I did it for England," he said emotionally. "I voted for Stevenson because he's more likely than Eisenhower to go to the help of England and France."

HOW TRUE! The foreigner-frustrated and the sufferers from the Mother Country complex were—and are—dreadfully disappointed with Ike. Their chagrin comes as one of life's little ironies. Without their entreaties General Eisenhower might well have stayed out of politics in '52 and given Mr. Republican his chance to become Mr. President.

Cantor Turns Down Series

HOLLYWOOD — NBC-TV and CBS-TV gave it a good old college try but it was ABC-TV that came up with the highest bid—so "The Frank Sinatra Theatre" is all theirs for next season. The Thin Singer has agreed to star in 26 of the 30-minute shows and host the remaining 14 with guest stars.

Eddie Cantor was offered a teletext series based on "Sizeman and Son," in which he did such a terrific job for "Playhouse 90," but turned it down. As Eddie says, "Who wants to spend the rest of his life in the garment business?"

Piper Laurie, who made her telenovela debut on "GE Theatre" two weeks ago in "The Road That Led Afar," says she accepted the role because it wasn't a typical Piper Laurie-type script. "I don't really know who Piper Laurie is anymore," Piper wide-eyed to me. "She's a girl I used to read silly things in the fan magazine about. But there'll be no more Piper Laurie-type roles if I can help it. Piper Laurie may be a little slow finding herself but I know the effort will be worth it."

CLETE ROBERTS, who covered the Middle Eastern and Hungarian hassles for Hollywood's KNXT, tells of a conversation he had with an Israeli officer in the Sinai Desert regarding captured Communist arms. The officer's final crack: "Our worry now is whether Russia will sell us spare parts."

Pat Boone flew in to Hollywood from New York for a single day of confabs with 20th-Fox brasshats about his upcoming assignment in "Bernadine." They asked for it, so CBS rushed a print to Moscow of Danny Kaye's UNICEF film to be telecast on "See It Now," which meant that the Soviets saw it simultaneously with 25 other countries.

In "With No Regrets," which rolls at Screen Gems tomorrow (Dec. 10), Ann Sothern will play a schoolmarm instead of the secretary she's used to portraying in the "Private Secretary" series. Probably made more money as a secretary!

TWELVE SHOWS, seven of them originating in Hollywood, are already casualties of the new TV season. And there'll be more and more biting the dust before too long, the giveaway shows are providing so much competition. . . . On the other hand, Frank Lovejoy made a pilot for a new private eye series that has every chance in the world of becoming a winner, a la "Dragnet."

Eddie Fisher will collect $115,000 from Coca Cola, originally signed to sponsor his NBC-TV show till next June, as termination settlement when they say goodbye Feb. 22. Could be Eddie will work for Chesterfield in the fall in a 30-minute show, format yet to be determined.

Rory Calhoun, convinced from listener reaction to a recent recording that his singing voice is not bad a tall a-tall, signed to co-star with singer Alan Case in a musical television series titled "Here Comes the Showboat," which will go before the cameras tomorrow (Dec. 10).

WALTER WINCHELL'S new sponsor, whoever it turns out to be, will undoubtedly sink a little more money into production than Toni and Old Gold did and turn it into a REALLY big show. . . . NBC and Dinah Shore haven't said much about it publicly as yet but they expect to be very happy with one another for a long time. Meaning a new contract for Nashville's own, darlin' Dinah. . . .

New York agency man Walter Craig, responsible for the current television quiz craze inasmuch as he's the guy who brought Revlon and "The $64,000 Question" together (everybody admits it was "$64,000" that fattered all the other quizzes), figures the question-answer type show can expect to ride high in the ratings for only one more year.

Ernie Kovacs (I'm laughing already!) The Goofers, Nairobi Trio, Al Kelly and Hayes Alan Jenkins, this year's Olympic men's figure skating champ, will help Sonja Henie cut the ice with her "Holiday on Ice" color Spectacular for NBC-TV Dec. 22. And if that isn't enough talent for one show, Art Linkletter will emcee.

Forgot to mention On December Five An occasion most momentous. 'Twas on that day in Thirty Three, repeal Made honest men of most of us.

Today, I ask if you can recall where (and how) you were on the night of December 5, 1933.

THE FORMATION (which is a word well-chosen here) of the Cummings Girls Club in Palm Springs last weekend, brings up a thought for those endowed with the ability to visualize what they read.

For among the qualifications for office in that phalanx of beauties was the specifications for presidency—42-22-42. Now, if I know what that means—and I believe I do—to me that looks like a king-size hour glass.

The by-laws of the Cummings Girls Club state that to be a member of the club, a girl must have the same measurements as those she had when appearing on the Cummings TV show.

The laws strictly forbid the use of any device such as elastic, plastic or foam rubber, to regain these specifications.

A SUN REPORTER ran into an exceedingly appropriate pair of names Thursday when checking the rainfall figures with Fire Station No. 2. The first time he called, Lewis answered. The next time, Clark.

Lewis and Clark are firemen stationed at Station Two. Lewis and Clark also blazed the Oregon Trail. Two other guys, however.

And what does it do in Oregon besides rain? That's why we have so many Oregonians in Palm Springs. Where it doesn't rain—much.

In fact, that sprinkle Thursday morning was the first moisture from the skies here since July 25. At that time, .07 of an inch fell. This week, .02 of an inch.

PALM SPRINGS is the only city, I believe, which has a Right-to-Work law. But Buffalo, New York, is another city which can boast of being exclusive with a law. Or, hopes to be.

The city council there is considering a law which will ban the display of undraped or unclothed mannikins in store windows.

If council adopts the law, Buffalo will be the only city in the nation with such a law against nudism.

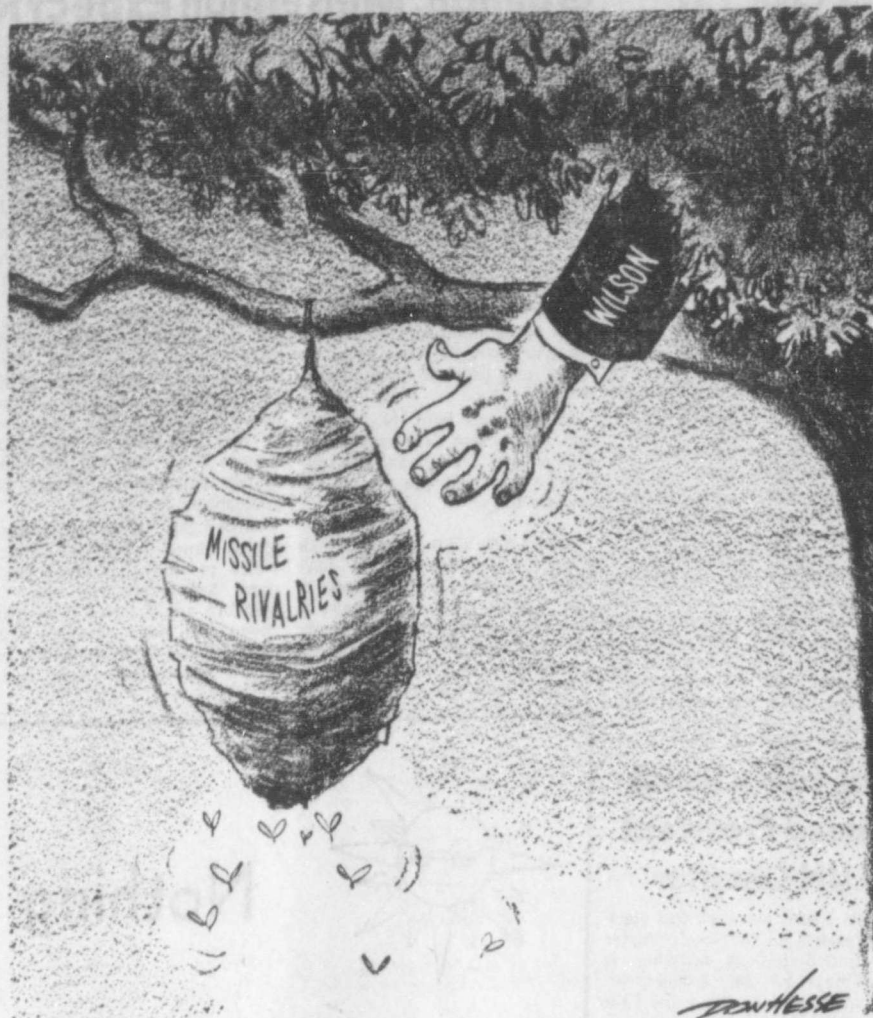

From news pictures I have seen of Buffalo, such a law will also prevent frost bite.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS are up on Palm Canyon Drive. I am happy to note that here they waited until a reasonable time before putting up the tinsel. At least, it won't be shredded by the weather, come the glad day.

But don't tell me that people are not superstitious. There were several ladders used and nobody, NOBODY, walked under one. Even dared traffic by leaving the sidewalk to get around them.

According to Edna May Bush, anyone who has observed modern woman in her cosmetic rites is constrained to observe that a thing of beauty is a job forever.

And It Came to Pass in 1984

And so it came to pass in the year 1984, even as George Orwell had predicted, that Communism ruled the world with a steel fist.

From Moscow, Big Brother determined the destinies of men.

In the once-free West, old men who had believed in 1956 that the United States was the mightiest nation in the world—invisible in moral and military might—dully pondered the purely academic question: Where and at what point had the West, with its bright hope of freedom and liberty for all men, hesitated and lost all?

His name had long since been expunged from the Communist-dictated history books, but the elders still remembered Patrick Henry and guardedly passed on to youngsters his revolutionary watchword, "Give me liberty or give me death."

THE YOUNGER generation had had no experience of freedom. But it was electrified when an old man, just before his execution as a counter-revolutionary, cried in the face of the firing squad, "It is better to die on one's feet than to live on one's knees!"

The entire firing squad, which had heard this treasonous utterance, was summarily executed, least it repeat the old man's words. But despite Big Brother's precaution, the words were repeated and spread like wild fire.

They seeped into Canada, and the first flicker of rebellion flared there. Students at McGill University started the brief, bitter anti-Communist revolt when they toppled a statue of General Zhukov, hero of the Soviet world who, after conquering the Arab countries, had gone on to conquer the globe.

WHEN SOVIET troops did not immediately execute the whole student body of McGill, hope flared through Canada. Communist headquarters in Montreal and Quebec were stormed by furious mobs and a dozen Red gauleiters hanged. The Western provinces rose to a man, and in

No less than fifty people have stopped me on the street to comment about the mother and the three children who were evicted from their home.

When I first reported the plight of this mother and her children who had been deserted by husband and father, it was asked that if anyone cared to aid this family to communicate with Dr. James E. Blackstone Jr. of the Palm Springs Community Church.

Now I know that Palm Springs has a big heart, but in this case the purse strings are so tight, well, about three people responded with a few dollars.

Have lived here for a long time now and it is known that the people of this community can and usually do good by people who are in distress. We believe that more will be done than has been indicated so far.

ALSO, QUITE A number of people in town have stopped and asked me where my arch competitor, Arthur Bliss (Conky) Conkwright has disappeared to. Well, I found out today. Conky has been in the Riverside County Hospital since Nov. 19. It's the same old trouble with Conky — his heart. But his wife, Vivian, and the Superintendent of the hospital informed me that he is "getting along just fine and he'll be home one day next week."

When his attending physician asked Conky if he could release any information about him for publication the doctor reported back to me:

"Mr. Conkwright said you can write anything you want about him and if you want a picture, his wife, Vivian, may have one." Thanks, Conky and Mrs. Conkwright, but I do not use pictures in this column. But we're glad that Conky is on the road to recovery.

AND WHILE WE ARE on the subject of well known persons who are missing from familiar scenes here and there, Mrs. Ona Brown came to mind. As a matter of fact, she has been on my

EARL WILSON:

The Late Miss Gardner

NEW YORK — I've made a colossal discovery — the reason why pretty women are always late.

It's because men quite placidly put up with them being late . . . providing they're pretty enough.

Ava Gardner, who was habitually late before Marilyn Monroe came along and made it popular, is "Miss Unpunctually" more so in Spain and Italy nowadays. "The late Miss Gardner" loves Madrid partly because she won't hurt anybody's feelings if she makes an appointment for tonight at 8 and doesn't show up until next Thursday.

"She's always late," says F. Hugh Herbert, who just finished a picture, "The Little Hut," starring her, "but she has such charm that you forgive her."

"So you don't bawl her out?" I asked him.

"NO, YOU NEED HER. And, after all, what would she say if you asked her about being late?"

"Why," he answered his own question, "it would merely be that she wanted to sleep another hour or so."

Frank Sinatra knows about this pretty well. Ava was supposed to have divorced him in the summer of 1954. She's reported to be about to get it either in Mexico or California . . . 30 months or so behind schedule.

"Maybe," F. Hugh Herbert said, "she goes off the lot to lunch and doesn't get back when she's due back. Possibly she's having a good time at lunch; so she says to herself, 'Oh, to heck with it. I'll be an hour late today.'"

"And nobody minds?"

He shrugged. "She's probably one of the ten most beautiful women in the world."

"And that makes it just dandy?"

"WHAT ARE YOU going to do about it anyway? She's spoiled . . . naturally."

"I'm amazed at your attitude," I scolded him.

"She's a star — and she's so pretty!" he shrugged again. "She likes those flamenco dancers and the gypsy characters. She rarely gets to bed before 5 or 6 in the morning. I don't think she really wants to come back here to stay for any length of time."

"And that Walter Chiari is a pretty handsome guy. He's been in Rome, but I imagine he kept going to Madrid just to keep the franchise."

AND SO THERE you have the secret — it's because guys tolerate tardiness. I'll always remember that the first time I interviewed Marilyn Monroe, she was unknown — and punctual. The second time, she was famous — and an hour late. The last time I interviewed her she was even more famous, and while I wouldn't say she was tardy, I can mention that while waiting for her I shaved twice.

mind for some time now. So today I gave the little lady a ring on the telephone. She has been in ill health for more than a year. During that time, Mrs. Brown said, she was in a North Hollywood Sanitarium. All of this because of a fall in her bathroom.

"I'm determined to walk again just like I used to," she said. "Tell everybody that I'm still around and will be for a long time, God willing." Her voice was cheerful and gay. The nurse informed me when I asked to talk to Mrs. Brown that it would take her a little while to get to the telephone; but it didn't take so much time.

Mrs. Brown has been a resident of Palm Springs for more than 18 years. At one time she was married to the great motion picture director, Clarence Brown, if you remember. We'll be seeing you again, Ona, and a merry yuletide to you.

WELL, THAT PHIL Zanville really had an opening night with the debut of his Phil Zanville's Harlequin Room featuring Ukie Sherin Thursday night. Got a kick out of Jack Casey, owner of the Rossmore, who brought his whole crew down for Ukie's opening which marked the first time that Phil has entered the show biz here in Palm Springs.

The place was packed and it looked like old home week judging from the great number of villagers who were there to listen to that clown Ukie at the piano. The entertainment was terrific, so was the food, and the liquid that flowed from the bar endlessly. I went home at midnight but unable to sleep at 1:30 a.m. called Phil and the noise that came over the telephone receiver was ear cracking.

"Why we're just beginning to roll," gleefully declared Phil. "And most of the crowd plans to stick around for our early morning breakfast—that is from 2 a.m. — and munch on a bagel."

They are good to munch on alright, if you have good teeth, Phil, or are your bagels the soft kind?

"Don't you think you should set an example by making the next star you work with be on time?" I demanded of Herbert.

"Not if it's somebody like Ava," he said. "She's too beautiful to bawl out for merely being late."

"I think it's a crime . . . and I'd like to add that I wrote this piece while waiting for my wife to get dressed to go out."

THE WEEK-END WINDUP . . . "DON'T PRINT THAT:" A pretty, young thing is being romanced by two famous entertainers; when either of these famous guys takes her home she sneaks out with her real honey—a cab driver.

The producers of O'Neill's "Long Day's Journey Into Night" are hunting for his son, Shane; can't find him anywhere . . . "Auntie Mame" is such a sellout the ticket brokers are calling it "My Fair Mamie" . . . Band-leader Ben Cutler did a bit on the "Valiant Lady" soap opera, on which his wife is the star . . .

Sue Harrison, 18, co-starring in "Sweet Smell of Success," was a salesgirl at Saks last Christmas . . . Comic Jack Leonard gave away his over-sized suits when he died, had to buy one to show on the "Person to Person" show . . . Abba Lane, opening at the Americana Dec. 8, sent ten trucks ahead . . . Joe Louis, who still owes more than a million in back taxes, sighs, "I'm over-matched."

One B'way talent agent has a sideline — he's also a funeral director . . . Charles Adams, the "Apple Cart" producer, will bring "Friendly Persuasion" to the B'way stage.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "It's strange how unimportant your job is when you ask for a raise, and how important it becomes when you want a day off." — Howie Lasser.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Robert Q. Lewis recalls the time he lived in a cold-water flat: "We had no stove — the only thing that kept me warm was listening to Gabriel Heatter."

A guy took his two children into a bar and explained, "All of a sudden it struck me I wasn't spending enough time with the kids." That's earl, brother.

Forty Hours Devotion Set At St. Louis Catholic Church

Beginning at the Masses on Sunday, Dec. 9, and continuing through Monday and Tuesday, special services in honor of the Blessed Sacrament will be conducted in St. Louis Church, Glenn at B Street, Cathedral City.

People of the Valley are invited to attend the services on Sunday and Monday evening at 7:45 and to visit the church during the day. The central object of Catholic devotion is the Adorable Sacrament of the Eucharist. This is evidenced by the principal act of worship which is the Sacrifice of the Mass, and by this devotion of the Forty Hours.

The latter devotion is comparatively new and unlike some of the other ceremonies of the Church its history only goes back to the year 1284. At first it was practiced immediately prior to Lent when in some countries the people were given to the unbridled license and dissipation of carnival days.

The bishops sought with this devotion to awaken the faithful to better and holier things and to make reparation to God for the insults that were offered to His Majesty. The period of forty hours was chosen in memory of the time during which the Sacred Body of Jesus was in the sepulchre.

The modern practice of having adoration in various churches on successive Sundays originated in Milan, Italy about the year 1537 when a severe visitation of the plague afflicted the city. The devotion was probably introduced into the United States about 1854 by the Archbishop of Baltimore.

Choral Litany Service Set At St. Paul's

The 11 a.m. service at St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church will be marked by the singing of the Choral Litany in procession, followed by a shortened form of Morning Prayer. The Choral Litany is normally sung at St. Paul's during Advent, Lent and on Trinity Sunday, following the tradition of the English Church. The Rector will preach at this service.

Holy Communion will be celebrated at 8 a.m. The Family Service begins in the Church with Morning Prayer at 9:15 a.m., after which classes are held for all ages, nursery department through adults.

The Young People's Fellowship will meet in the Rector's study at 7 p.m. tomorrow. The young people are rehearsing for the caroling which will take place Dec. 23. Holy Communion is celebrated at St. Paul's in the Desert each Thursday at 10 a.m.

With Christmas cards . . . and 1957 calendars in the mail . . . December is rapidly winding up a year . . . that has been one of fun and frolic . . . with many changes and almost unbelievable progress for Palm Springs . . . Mexico and Honolulu or their home towns . . . are claiming some of our villagers . . . for the holiday celebrations . . . while others are just arriving to spend Christmas in Palm Springs . . . It's a time of shopping for Christmas gifts . . . and for planning Christmas dinners . . . and wondering when you'll get your own Christmas cards addressed . . . but out Tamarisk way . . . Interest is centering in the big Pro-Amateur Tournament that started today . . . with golfers pouring into town for the weekend . . .

If you are going to have a Christmas party . . . with everyone coming in Santa Claus costumes . . . If you have guests arriving by reindeer-drawn sleigh . . . or astride burros . . . If you have something really different and dashing in the way of Christmas decorations . . . or plan a poolside Christmas dinner and swim party . . . or something else very unusual . . . your Chamber of Commerce is interested . . . (P.S. I am, too . . . it would make a good story) . . .

The reason the Chamber of Commerce is interested . . . is for publicity reasons . . . This Christmas . . . Look Magazine is featuring Christmas celebrations in the East . . . and, a matter of long range planning, they expect to get to the West Coast next year . . . and Palm Springs should have a place in it . . .

Mrs. Melville Rothschild, of the famous banking family, has leased the Leo Spitz house on Hermosa Place . . . and will take possession the day after Christmas . . .

Another winter resident is Jack Warner, of Warner Brothers . . . who has taken the Ted Larsen house for the winter . . . This is in the Cabuilla Hills just below Lily Pons . . .

Lunching at Chi Chi Thursday . . . was Elsinore Machris, just returned from a visit to her Scottsdale home . . . With her were Orpha Frank . . . and Helen Newlin, who is secretary to architect Hal Hayes . . .

Dr. Alfred Strauss flew in from Chicago Thursday . . . to join Mrs. Strauss who arrived earlier . . . Their daughter and her husband Paul Friedlander and their two children will be down to spend Christmas at the Strauss house on North Patencio Road . . .

Basil Brewer is here from New Bedford, Massachusetts . . . and staying at Howard Manor . . . He will be here for two weeks . . .

Dining at the Doll House Thursday evening were . . . Basil Grillo, vice president of the Bing Crosby Enterprises, Al Rose the Trailer King . . . and Harry Heath, general manager of Blue Skies Trailer Village . . . and all three deep in conversation . . . as they discussed plans for the further development of Bing's Blue Skies . . .

Among the golfers here for the Tamarisk Pro-Amateur Tournament . . . Art Anderson and his father Carl Anderson, from Wilshire Country Club . . . Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Sorenson from Santa Monica . . . and the David C. Gordons from Denver . . . All of them are staying at the Desert Star on Palo Fierro . . .

Men Continue to Lead Women in Traffic Offenses

Analyzing the Coachella Valley Savings & Loan Association Traffic Safety Contest now nearing the end of its third week in Palm Springs brings to light a number of interesting statistics.

First, the men drivers are proving to be consistently more serious violators of traffic laws than women, with a total penalty to date of 648 points against a total women's penalty of 545. Without figuring the score on the basis of 70 per cent men drivers, the difference in penalties would be considerably greater.

MEN HAVE BEEN tagged 47 times in these three weeks for speeding, as compared to eight violations issued to women for this misdemeanor. Men have been given six citations for passing a school bus or speeding in school

Workmen Work, Do Good Job, But Owner Asks Why

Dr. Irving Treiger, 547 North Calle Rolph, is a little at a loss over just what happened at his home, and told police about it.

It seems that the doctor had a pile of loose gravel in his driveway near his house, and yesterday while he was gone from home, two men had spread the gravel neatly over his front yard.

When he arrived home, he noticed what had been done, and then was informed by the neighbors that two men had spread the gravel and left word with them that they would send a bill.

The whole catch seems to be that the doctor did not order the work done.

The doctor did not tell police what he had planned to do with the gravel.

Weinberger Baby Kidnapper, Wife Collapse on Hearing Death Verdict

MINEOLA, N.Y. (UP)—Angelo LaMarca and his wife collapsed on hearing a jury convict him of the kidnap-murder of infant Peter Weinberger. The verdict carries an automatic sentence of death in the Sing Sing electric chair.

David Markowitz, defense counsel, said he would appeal the verdict to the New York State Court of Appeals in Albany, on Dec. 14, the day set for formal sentencing.

THE JURY COMPOSED only of fathers refused to recommend mercy in announcing it had found LaMarca guilty of both kidnapping and first-degree murder. Because of this the death penalty is automatic under New York's Little Lindbergh Law and murder statute.

The 31-year-old mechanic, who pleaded innocent by reason of insanity when he abducted Peter July 4 and abandoned him to die of starvation and exposure, went limp when he heard the verdict.

HE HAD TO BE supported to stand before Judge Mario Pitoni, who set the date for sentencing.

Donna LaMarca, the condemned man's wife, also fainted and was carried from the courtroom. She was helped to a car and driven to the home of relatives.

'God, Preserver Of Man' Named As Sermon Topic

"By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God." These words of the Apostle Paul to the Ephesians (2:8) are given as the Golden Text of the Lesson-Sermon "God the Preserver of Man" in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday.

Christ Jesus' teachings on the thought of the shepherd as the door and the sheep protected by the shepherd in highlighted in a selection taken from the Apostle John's Gospel. The Master declares: "I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture... I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine" (10:9, 14).

Mary Baker Eddy's original and often quoted words, "Divine Love always has met and always will meet every human need" are a part of the correlation of Jesus' shepherd teaching.

They are taken from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" and are followed by, "It is not well to imagine that Jesus demonstrated the divine power to heal only for a select number or for a limited period of time, since to all mankind and in every hour, divine Love supplies all good" (p. 494).

N.Y. Newspaper Strike Averted

NEW YORK (UP)—The Newspaper Deliverers Union early today accepted a new contract with nine major New York area newspapers, ending the threat of a strike.

The union members at a meeting which ran past a midnight strike deadline okayed a contract drawn up by its executive committee and the publishers.

William Mapel, president of Publisher Association of the City of New York, had announced six hours earlier that the agreement had been reached. It was recommended unanimously to the union executive committee by the negotiators representing the employees.

Negro Students Promised Police Protection in Clinton

CLINTON, Tenn. (UP)—Negro students indicated today they will return to the integrated Clinton High School when it reopens Monday after a week's shutdown because of racial strife.

Strong precautions were being planned to prevent further molesting or intimidating of the nine Negroes among more than 700 students. The Anderson County school board assured the Negroes they will have police protection.

COUNTY ATTORNEY Eugene L. Joyce said the text of a federal court injunction against interference with the right of the Negroes to attend the school will be read to the entire student body at the school reopening.

"We want to dramatize this thing — let them know it's coming down like a wet tent on everyone," Joyce said.

The board threatened to expel any students caught harassing the Negroes.

UNION FILES

Wednesday of charges with the National Labor Relations Board in Los Angeles, for the Culinary and Bartenders Union. Richman asked that the NLRB file a complaint against the city.

IN THE CHARGES to the NLRB, Richman accused the city of "extortion" by saying that two city councilmen prior to the passage of the Right-to-Work ordinance, "informed representatives of various other unions, including the Building Trades unions, that if other unions could prevail upon the Culinary Workers Union, Local 535, to discontinue its organizing efforts in Palm Springs, the ordinance would be tabled."

The charges also said the unions "refused to submit to such extortion" and the city council later enacted the ordinance. It says that the City Council was "acting as an agent of Palm Springs Employers Association."

PALM SPRINGS CITY Attorney Jerry Bunker issued a statement yesterday saying, (1) the NLRB is not interested in interfering with city government or its power to enact laws; (2) that there is no dispute between the city and its employees; (3) that the city is not engaged in interstate commerce, and for these reasons Bunker believes that they will not issue a complaint.

Bunker said that the charges say the "city was coercing employees and denying them their freedom—obviously, the ordinance does not deny them their freedom, but gives them the right to work." In answer to the charges of extortion, he added that "what one councilman does, does not affect the legislation enacted by seven."

IN A THIRD action this week, a hearing was held on a temporary restraining order issued out of Superior Court in Indio last week, restraining the pickets at the Oasis Hotel, and Judge McCabe took under advisement a plea by Palm Springs Attorney Arnold Rumwell for a preliminary injunction.

HOWEVER, JOYCE said, events of the past week have shown a "change in the FBI attitude."

Police Chief Francis Moore told the board meeting Friday that officers would be on hand to arrest anyone found loitering around the school Monday with no business there.

"I assure you there will be not one outsider interfering with students returning to school," Moore said.

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

MELBOURNE, (AP) — Fearless Fraley's facts and figures from the Olympic Games.

Ron Delany, the Irishman from Villanova College who was a surprise winner of the Olympic 1,500-meter race, ruined plans for a gala celebration in Dublin by refusing to return home until after he graduates from his business course in January.

"Since winning the race, I've had two dozen offers to write magazine stories and my life story," Delany said. "But I don't want to wind up like Cliff Blair."

Blair was ousted from the U.S. team for writing newspaper articles, which seems a bit inane considering the out and out professionalism of Russian athletes who work at no other job except their sporting specialty.

OFFICIATING at the Olympic Games was the poorest in history, and even high school events in the States are run with more smoothness and accuracy. Wrong results were given constantly. At the end of the 10-event decathlon, the 1-500-meter times never were announced and Mill Campbell's winning total was given incorrectly. In swimming, "new world records" were frequently announced — and then no time was given.

A film distributing agency arranged to have a special showing of a rock-and-roll movie at the village at six p.m. Some guests waited out front 25 minutes for some Russian invitees — but underestimated the Soviet eagerness. The Russians arrived at 5 p.m. and persuaded the theater manager to start showing the film three-quarters of an hour early... wonder how it started.

MIND OVER matter, this muscle dodge. Jim George, of Akron, Ohio, struggled to lift a new world light heavyweight record in a special exhibition of weight lifting. Then he dropped it and smashed a hole in the floor.

George actually cried when the weights were weighed — and were found 20 pounds short. So, when they added the 20 pounds, he walked angrily up to the weights — and hoisted the thing more easily than he did the first time, setting it down gently when he was through.

Play Gets Under Way in Pro-Am At Tamarisk Club

Forty six pros, each with a four-some of two club members, and their own invited amateur guest, teed off this morning at Tamarisk Country Club in the two-day 36-hole Seventh Annual Pro-Amateur tournament.

The pros will vie for $3000 in cash and the amateurs will compete for the glory of it.

Eighteen holes are scheduled each day.

Among the out-of-state pros who will try for the top money are Dick Knight of Omaha, Neb., Billy Maxwell, former U.S. National champion, from Odessa, Texas, and Harry Dee and Joe Moore Jr., of New York City.

Elly Vines, Tamarisk pro, Eric Monti of Hillcrest, Billy Casper of Chula Vista, Smiley Quick of Los Angeles, Dick Lundahl of Annandale, Jerry Barber of Wilshire, Harry Bassler of Fox Hills are some of the other pros in action.

Among the amateurs, representing Tamarisk are Harpo and Gumbo Marx of the famed comedian brothers.

Pat Martin of Palm Springs is the defending pro champion and his Tamarisk club team members were Ben McIntyre of Tamarisk, and Bill Atkinson of Reno, Nev.

Women Netters Compete at SMC

Pauline Betz Addie, holder of many world's tennis titles, and Magda Rurac, Shadow Mountain Tennis pro, are the top attraction on the courts of the club today.

They are staging an exhibition tennis match, starting at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Addie has held the Wimbledon, Forest Hills, Pacific Southwest and many other tennis titles. Mrs. Rurac is one of the few who can claim a victory over Mrs. Addie. She has held the U.S. Clay Court title two times.

Daily Double at Meadows—$1,247

He scored on Corn Stalk $193.90 in the first and Energy $11.50 in the second. Twenty-six $2 tickets were sold on the combination.

16th Olympiad Ends in Russian Team Win

Minor Events Give Soviet Title by 129

Change in Rules Advocated as Result of Melbourne Games

By LEO H. PETERSEN
United Press Sports Editor
MELBOURNE, (AP) — The XVI Olympiad, begun 17 days ago amid an international war crisis and marred repeatedly by bitter wrangling, closed today with pomp and ceremony and the award of one last Russian gold medal.

A 1-0 victory over Yugoslavia in the soccer final, the only competition today, brought the Soviets their 37th gold medal of the games and a final 129-point margin over the United States in the unofficial team race, 722 to 593.

The Russian victory was emphatic in medals as well as points, for they won 99 medals of all types against only 74 for the United States.

AND OBSERVERS here left wondering how many years it will take America to regain the title. It promised to be a long, long time for the Soviet victory stemmed directly from sports in which few Americans have any interest — gymnastics, canoeing, field hockey, cycling, fencing, Greco-Roman wrestling.

J. Lyman Bingham, executive director of the U.S. Olympic Committee, marked the closing day with a promise that U.S. sports officials will turn new interest on these so-called "minor" sports in which the Russians reaped a rich point harvest. But many American athletes and coaches thought such a campaign was doomed to failure.

"Young Americans would much prefer putting their feet down on accelerators than on pedals," said Joe Becker of St. Louis, Mo., who finished 43rd. in a field of 44 in cycling.

"IN AMERICA, it's basketball and baseball," observed pretty, 19-year-old gymnast Jacquelyn Klein of Northwestern. "In Europe it's gymnastics."

Experts agreed the Russian victory was scored against the strongest American Olympic team in history. Feature of the U.S. performance was a record show of 15 gold medals in men's track and field.

But Russia picked up a little strength in the major sports from its 1952 showing and then swept to the team title with such showings as 27½ points in wrestling and gymnastics to only 17 of the United States. The United States didn't score a single point in women's gymnastics, canoeing, field hockey, or cycling, only three in fencing, and four in shooting.

ONE WAY America might overcome this Russian superiority in "fringe" sports would be in the event of a rules change downgrading their value. American Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic Committee, said it was a "shame" the decathlon champion got only one gold medal for a 10-event competition while a gymnast could win a gold medal for each part of his competition, and then another for the overall title.

Bingham suggested that a gold medal should be given each competitor in a team sport. That would have meant 12 medals for the U.S. basketball team instead of one, eight for Yale's eight-oared crew instead of one. But whether such suggestions ever would result in rules changes seemed dubious.

The games closed, as they opened, before a capacity crowd of 110,000 at the main stadium.

Fight Results

By UNITED PRESS
NEW YORK, Madison Square Garden — Tony Anthony, 173½, New York, knocked out Gordon Wallace, 164, Brantford, Ont. 1.

ALTHOUGH RUSSIA copped the Olympic team boxing crown, the U. S. came through with victories in the light heavy and heavy-weight ranks. Here is Pete Rademacher of Grandview, Wash., being stopped by the referee from dealing out further punishment to Russia's Lev Moukhine in the first round of the finals. Other boxing gold medal was won by light heavy-weight Jim Boyd of Rocky Mountain, N. C.

Seaborg Dims Hopes PCC Ineligibility Ban to be Eased

BERKELEY, Calif. (UP)—Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, Pacific Coast Conference faculty representative for the University of California, says his comments regarding eligibility of certain banned football players had been "misinterpreted in some quarters."

Seaborg had been quoted in stories from Los Angeles as saying there was a "chance" that certain players "might" get back their eligibility at a meeting in San Francisco Jan. 3-4 of faculty representatives and the presidents council.

Anthony Seeking Spieser Bout in Quest for Crown

NEW YORK, (AP) — Light-heavyweight contender Tony Anthony of New York planned another elimination fight today for late January regardless of yells from Canadian Gordon Wallace that he got a "short count" in Friday night's first-round knockout at Madison Square Garden.

Lanky Anthony, who left-hooked the British Empire champion through the ring ropes for a kayo at 1:34 of the television bout, is negotiating for the next elimination with Chuck Spieser of Lansing, Mich.

Blond Wallace of Brantford, Ont. made no official protest to the boxing commission; but he yelled loudly to the press: "Anthony must meet me in a return bout. He didn't knock me out. I was on my feet and ready to fight at the count of nine."

Wallace, 26, was almost 10 pounds lighter than Anthony, 21, at the weights of 173½ for the tall New Yorker and only 164 for the Canadian.

Seven Days of Play Scheduled, Monday Through Next Sunday

Thunderbird Country Club will open a full week of golf competition in its Seventh Annual Men's Invitational next Monday when the higher handicappers start a three-day quest for prizes over a 54-hole route.

Seniors will play Thursday and the Championship Flight, also a 54-hole affair, will be fought out Friday through Sunday.

Jimmy Hines, Thunderbird pro, reported that as of 3 p.m. yesterday, 18 entries had been received from California amateurs.

EARLY MONDAY, those with handicaps of nine and above, will tee off on the first 18 of their tournament which will be concluded Wednesday night.

Thursday the annual Senior tournament will be held with four classes competing. Players are bracketed in the 55-59, 60-64, 65-69 and 70 and over age classes.

The Championship Flight starts on Friday with 18 holes each day, ending Sunday night.

AMONG ENTRIES received is that of Dr. Frank M. (Bud) Taylor, defending champion who also won the tournament in 1954. Johnny Dawson of Thunderbird is another top entry.

Low net and low gross prizes will be awarded in each class of the tournament. Several social events are planned in connection with the play.

Indians Start Cage Season

Basketball fans will get their first look at the 1956 edition of Palm Springs High School basketball teams tonight as two local quintets take on Brawley high in a double-header in the local gymnasium tonight.

The B teams of the two schools will start the proceedings at 7 p.m. while the Varsity teams will tip off at 8 p.m.

Coach Alfred Kazmire, who has taken over the coaching job due to the illness of Ralph Watt who tutored the Indians into a Riverside County League championship last year, has an excellent nucleus from that team to start with but faces a big task in replacing Charley Jordan, one of the top southland prep centers, who graduated last May.

Hopes are high at the school for a successful defense of last year's championship. The team last year averaged 67 points per game.

First Federal Opens Monday For Savings

All residents of the area opening savings accounts next week will become Charter Members of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Palm Springs. The new offices at 400 S. Palm Canyon Drive will open Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Accounts of those who subscribed in advance of receiving the charter may now be opened. Directors of the Association have urged this group to visit the new offices just as soon as possible. Savings accounts may be opened by anyone regardless of where they live. It was pointed out. Accounts can be opened by mail, and passbooks will be sent the members promptly.

Savings Group In Beautiful New Offices

One of the most attractive new establishments to open in Palm Springs in recent years is the office of First Federal Savings and Loan Association at 400 S. Palm Canyon Drive. Done in soft tones of beige and dark brown the offices create an atmosphere of warmth and friendliness. Tropical planting adds to the beauty of the lobby.

The fixtures are of the most modern design for a financial institution and all equipment is of the newest type. Desks of a new L-shaped design are of steel construction and finished in cordovan and beige. They are being specially assembled in the east and may not arrive for another ten days, it was stated.

When completely finished and equipped before the end of the month, the offices will be a notable addition to the many attractive establishments on Palm Canyon Drive.

Local Citizens Direct First Federal Ass'n.

Seven local residents of the Palm Springs area were named as directors of First Federal Savings and Loan Association at a meeting of subscribers held a week ago. They are: Oliver Jaynes, Charles Farrel, William Tackett, Percy Whiteside, Mrs. Robert Howard, Frank Bogert and Larry Kirwan. All have been residents of Palm Springs for many years except Kirwan, executive vice-president and general manager, who moved here recently from Los Angeles Coast Federal Savings. The board of directors has elected Whiteside as president; Farrel, president and Bogert as vice-president. Tackett as treasurer. All of the directors except Kirwan were organizers of the Association. Charles Becker, the other organizer, advised the group that he could not serve as a director because he is not here enough of the time to attend meetings.
